The members of the Sailing Committee shall be eligible for re-election. Their duties shall be laid down by the Management Committee and shall include the organisation of Rescue boats.
13. The whole property of the Club, both heritable and movable shall be vested in the Trustees of the Club who shall be the Flag Officers and the Office Bearers of the Club, as specified in Rules 9 and 10, and their successors in office ex officios. The Club shall through the Management Committee have power to raise funds as may be required from time to time and the Trustees shall have power to grant security, heritable or otherwise therefor.
14. The Management and other Committees shall have power to delegate any part or parts of their duties, except directions of the Trustees with such powers as they may deem necessary to one or more of their members, to sub-committees (whether composed of their own members or Club members or both) or otherwise as shall in the sole discretion of the relevant Committee be deemed necessary.
15. The Management Committee shall be entitled to co-opt members to fill casual vacancies in the Committee, and to co-opt additional members, not exceeding THREE in number, with full powers to attend and vote at any Committee Meeting. The Committee may also co-opt any number of persons, whether members of the Club or not, for any special purpose but without the powers of voting at Committee Meetings, provided that the number of such persons shall at no time exceed ONE THIRD of the number of elected members of said Committee. Such persons shall not be entitled to any of the privileges of membership of the Club.
16. The Annual General Meeting of the Club shall be held in DECEMBER each year The Flag Officers, Office Bearers and other members of the Committee for the ensuing year shall be elected in accordance with the Standing Orders. The financial report and audited accounts for the previous financial year shall be submitted for approval and an Auditor elected. The members of the Club shall have an opportunity of raising any business in connection with the Club.

17. The Financial Year of the Club shall end on THIRTY FIRST October in each year. The accounts of the Club shall be made up to that date and shall be audited prior to the Annual General Meeting by an Honorary Auditor appointed by the Club in General Meeting. The Honorary Auditor may be a member of the Club or of the Management Committee. He shall retire at each Annual General Meeting but shall be eligible for re-election.
- 17b. Sailing Activities - Orkney Sailing Club is a non-profit making organisation. All profits and surpluses will be used to maintain or improve the Clubs facilities. No profit or surplus will be distributed.
Adopted at a Special General Meeting of Orkney Sailing Club 20 April 2000
18. A Special General Meeting of the Club shall be called by the Honorary Secretary on: -
- a) the authority of the Management Committee, or
  - b) within TEN days of the receipt of a requisition signed by not less than FIVE members entitled to vote at General Meetings, stating the purpose for which the meeting is desired, which purpose shall be any purpose not connected with the alteration of the Club rules.
19. At least SEVEN clear days notice shall be given of all General Meetings. This notice shall be promulgated by intimation in the "ORCADIAN" newspaper or such other newspaper, which has a substantial circulation in Orkney and by notice displayed on the Club Notice Board. In the case of a Special General Meeting, the notice shall state the purpose for which the meeting has been called, and no other business shall be transacted at the meeting.
20. A Quorum for a General Meeting shall be TWENTY members entitled to vote and for a meeting of the Management committee the quorum shall be FIVE.
21. Each member must vote personally. No member shall be entitled to vote at any Meeting unless all monies due from such member to the Club shall have been paid.
22. Any Member wishing to move a resolution at any Annual General Meeting shall give written notice thereof to the Honorary Secretary at least THIRTY-ONE days before the date of the meeting, and that resolution shall be included in the Notice convening that Annual General Meeting.
23. The Senior Flag Officer of the Club present shall take the chair at all General and Committee Meetings. If no Flag Officer were present the Meeting shall appoint it's own Chairman.

24. The Chairman shall have a deliberative and a casting vote.
25. The Management Committee shall have power to employ professional and other assistance and to allow the usual remuneration for the same. It shall be no objection that a professional adviser employed under this rule is a member of the Management Committee or of the Club.
26. No Member shall have any claim against the Club or its Officers or Office Bearers or against any individual member of the Club acting in an official capacity on behalf of the Club, in respect of any loss, injury or damage whatsoever caused or arising from any accident or misadventure happening on or within the Club premises or precincts. This freedom from liability cannot be claimed if there is any insurance cover in operation, which would provide compensation for an injured member.
27. The Management Committee shall be entitled to open Banking Accounts, as it may deem convenient and to allow these to be operated on its behalf by the Honorary Treasurer or by such other person or persons as may be decided by the General Committee. Such person or persons shall ensure that correct accounts and books shall be kept showing the financial affairs and intrusions of the Club.
28. The Management Committee shall ordinarily meet once a month.
29. The Management Committee shall have the power to make Bye Laws which shall have immediate effect on promulgation, but shall lapse if not confirmed at the next Annual General Meeting or at a Special General Meeting called to confirm them. Promulgation shall be effected by exhibition on the Club Notice Board. Should any unconfirmed Bye Law be objected to in writing by FIVE members entitled to vote at General Meetings, a Special General Meeting shall be convened within TEN days of receipt of the objection by the Honorary Secretary.
30. A copy of all the confirmed Byelaws shall be displayed on the Club Notice Board or some other such conspicuous place in the Club premises at all times.
31. Complaints other than sailing protests must be made in writing to the Honorary Secretary and shall be dealt with by the Management Committee at their first meeting.
32. Any member wishing to resign from the Club shall give ONE MONTHS notice either verbally or in writing to the Secretary before the end of the current Club Financial Year or shall be liable for his subscription for the ensuing year, unless he or she shall have previously left the County permanently.

33. Any member infringing the Rules of the Club or the Bye-Laws of the Committee or whose conduct in or out of the Club is not in the interests of the Club shall be subject to expulsion under a TWO THIRDS majority of Committee members present, whereupon he or she shall cease to be a member of the Club, and shall forfeit all fees and subscriptions paid. The member so expelled will be advised in writing by the Secretary of the Committee's decision.
34. No dogs or other animals shall be allowed in to the Club premises, with the exception of guide dogs.
35. Every boat belonging to a member of the Club shall be registered in a book kept for that purpose by the Honorary Secretary, such register to state the name, rig and exact dimensions of each vessel, with owner's name and distinguishing flag and numbers. Owners on becoming Members of the Club shall furnish the Honorary Secretary with particulars. Boats belonging to Members, while on hire to non-members, shall not be considered as belonging to the Club, and shall not fly the Club flag, or be entitled to the privileges of the Club. Any member selling his boat or share thereof, or acquiring a new boat, is requested within seven days after the transfer or purchase, to intimate the same to the Honorary Secretary. When any boat is the property of more than one-person, all the joint-owners must be members of this Club before such boat shall be entitled to the privileges of the Club.
36. All sailing by members of the Club when racing shall be carried out under the Rules of the Royal Yachting Association and the International Yacht Racing Union as amended from time to time by the Sailing Committee in terms of these Rules. When not racing Department of Trade Rules will apply.
37. The Club bar will be run in accordance with rules laid down by the Management Committee, and in particular the following rules:
- a) The licensing hours shall be as specified by the relevant sections of current legislation, i.e. the Licensing (Scotland) Act 1976 and any subsequent legislation amending or superseding that Act.
  - b) No member of the Management Committee and no manager or servant employed in the Club shall have any personal interest in the sale of excisable liquor therein, or in the profits arising from such sale.
  - c) No excisable liquor shall be sold or supplied to any person under EIGHTEEN.
  - d) A visitor shall not be supplied with excisable liquor in the Club premises unless on invitation and in the company of a member, and the member shall upon the admission of such visitor to the Club premises or immediately upon his being supplied with such liquor enter his own name

- and the name and address of the visitor in a book which shall be kept for the purpose and which shall show the date of each visit. A visitor shall not be permitted to make payment either directly or indirectly for excisable liquor supplied within the Club premises.
- e) No excisable liquor shall be sold or supplied in the Club premises for consumption off the premises, except to a member of the Club in person for consumption by him.
38. No excisable liquor or any other drinks will be supplied on credit.
39. Any member is entitled to introduce in to the Club friends whom he deems suitable.
40. A list of the names and addresses of Club Members and Office bearers shall be posted on the Club Notice Board.
41. Should a Regatta or other similar competition be arranged with an outside Club or Organisation, members of that Club or Organisation should be admitted to the Club premises on the day or evening of the event.
42. Standing Orders - the Management Committee shall have power to adopt and issue Standing Orders and/or Rules, as they shall from time to time determine. Such Standing Orders and Rules shall come in to operation immediately, provided always they shall not be inconsistent with provisions of this constitution.
43. The winding-up of the Club's activities, or the Club as whole, shall be effected only at an Annual General Meeting or at a Special General Meeting to be called for the purpose, provided that the proposal shall be approved only if THREE QUARTERS or more of the voting members present at the meeting vote in favour. In the event of the winding-up of the Club as a whole, the Club's assets shall distributed to a non-profit making body, or bodies, the nature of which shall be decided at the said Annual General Meeting or Special General Meeting.
(Amended at an EGM 5/3/02)
44. This Constitution and Rules may only be altered or added to if the alteration or addition has, after due notice has been given to all Members, been approved by a TWO THIRDS majority of those present at an Annual General Meeting or at a Special General Meeting called for the purpose.
(Adopted at a Special General Meeting of Orkney Sailing Club April 1990)
