The members of the Club shall have an opportunity of raising any business in connection with the Club.
19. The Financial Year of the Club shall end on THIRTY FIRST October in each year. The accounts of the Club shall be made up to that date and shall be audited prior to the Annual General Meeting by an Independent Examiner appointed by the Club in General Meeting. The Independent Examiner may be a member of the Club or of the Management Committee. They shall retire at each Annual General Meeting but shall be eligible for re-election.
20. Sailing Activities - Orkney Sailing Club is a non-profit making organisation. All profits and surpluses will be used to maintain or improve the Clubs facilities and activities. No profit or surplus will be distributed.
21. A Special General Meeting of the Club shall be called by the Honorary Secretary on:-
  - i. the authority of the Management Committee, or
  - ii. within TEN days of the receipt of a requisition signed by not less than FIVE members entitled to vote at General Meetings, stating the purpose for which the meeting is desired, which purpose shall be any purpose not connected with the alteration of the Club rules.
22. At least SEVEN clear days notice shall be given of all General Meetings. This notice shall be promulgated by intimation in the "ORCADIAN" newspaper or such other newspaper, which has a substantial circulation in Orkney and by notice displayed on the Club Notice Board or by email to each member, by the email address last notified by them to the Club; and by means of the club website and social media or other electronic means. In the case of a Special General Meeting, the notice shall state the purpose for which the meeting has been called, and no other business shall be transacted at the meeting.

23. Meetings can take place digitally in whole or in part subject to any digital arrangements (a) being notified to members with the notice sent under Rules 21-22 (b) using a readily available system and (c) identifying the names of those attending to the chair of the meeting and, as appropriate, to other attendees. Decisions on whether to accept digital participation in whole or individually will rest with the chair of the meeting.
24. A Quorum for a General Meeting shall be FIFTEEN members entitled to vote and for a meeting of the Management committee the quorum shall be FIVE.
25. Each member must vote personally. No member shall be entitled to vote at any Meeting unless all monies due from such member to the Club shall have been paid.
26. Any Member wishing to move a resolution at any Annual General Meeting shall give written notice thereof to the Honorary Secretary at least THIRTY-ONE days before the date of the meeting, and that resolution shall be included in the Notice convening that Annual General Meeting.
27. The Senior Flag Officer of the Club present shall take the chair at all General and Committee Meetings. If no Flag Officer were present the Meeting shall appoint its own Chairman.
28. The Chairman shall have a deliberative and a casting vote.
29. The Management Committee shall have power to employ professional and other assistance and to allow the usual remuneration for the same. It shall be no objection that a professional adviser employed under this rule is a member of the Management Committee or of the Club.
30. No Member shall have any claim against the Club or its Officers or Office Bearers or against any individual member of the Club acting in an official capacity on behalf of the Club, in respect of any loss, injury or damage whatsoever caused or arising from any accident or misadventure happening on or within the Club premises or precincts. This freedom from liability cannot be claimed if there is any insurance cover in operation, which would provide compensation for an injured member.
31. The Management Committee shall be entitled to open Banking Accounts, as it may deem convenient and to allow these to be operated on its behalf by the Honorary Treasurer or by such other person or persons as may be decided by the General Committee. Such person or persons shall ensure that correct accounts and books shall be kept showing the financial affairs and intromissions of the Club.
32. The Management Committee shall ordinarily meet once a month.
33. The Management Committee shall have the power to make Bye Laws which shall have immediate effect on promulgation but shall lapse if not confirmed at the next Annual General Meeting or at a Special General Meeting called to confirm them. Promulgation shall be affected by exhibition on the Club Notice Board. Should any unconfirmed Bye Law be objected to in writing by FIVE members entitled to vote at General Meetings, a Special General Meeting shall be convened within TEN days of receipt of the objection by the Honorary Secretary.
34. A copy of all the confirmed Byelaws shall be displayed on the Club Notice Board or some other such conspicuous place in the Club premises at all times.
35. Complaints other than sailing protests must be made in writing to the Honorary Secretary and shall be dealt with by the Management Committee at their next meeting.
36. Any member wishing to resign from the Club shall give ONE MONTH'S notice either verbally or in writing to the Secretary before the end of the current Club Financial Year or shall be liable for his subscription for the ensuing year unless he or she shall have previously left the County permanently.
37. Any member infringing the Rules of the Club or the Byelaws of the Committee or whose conduct in or out of the Club is not in the interests of the Club shall be subject to expulsion. A member will be expelled by a TWO THIRDS majority vote of the committee members who are present at a committee meeting. Upon expulsion they shall cease to be a member of the Club and shall forfeit all fees and subscriptions paid. The member so expelled will be advised in writing by the Secretary of the Committee's decision.
38. No dogs or other animals shall be allowed into the Club premises, with the exception of guide dogs.
39. When any boat is the property of more than one person, all the joint owners must be members of this Club before such boat shall be entitled to the privileges of the Club.
40. All sailing by members of the Club when racing shall be carried out under the Rules of the Royal Yachting Association and World Sailing as amended from time to time by the Sailing Committee in terms of these Rules.

Bar

41. The Club bar will be run in accordance with rules laid down by the Management Committee, and in particular the following rules:
  - i. The licensing hours shall be as specified by the relevant sections of the Operating Plan as laid down by the Orkney Islands Area Licensing Board in accordance with the Licensing (Scotland) Act 2005 and The Licensing (Clubs) (Scotland) Regulations 2007 and any subsequent legislation amending or superseding that Act.
  - ii. No member of the Management Committee and no manager or servant employed in the Club shall have any personal interest in the sale of excisable liquor therein, or in the profits arising from such sale.
  - iii. No excisable liquor shall be sold or supplied to any person under EIGHTEEN.
  - iv. A visitor shall not be supplied with excisable liquor in the Club premises unless on invitation and in the company of a member, and the member shall upon the admission of such visitor to the Club premises or immediately upon his being supplied with such liquor enter his own name and the name and address of the visitor in a book which shall be kept for the purpose, and which shall show the date of each visit. A visitor shall not be permitted to make payment either directly or indirectly for excisable liquor supplied within the Club premises.
  - v. Other than when an occasional licence has effect, A visitor shall not be supplied with excisable liquor in the Club premises unless on invitation and in the company of a member, and the member shall upon the admission of such visitor to the Club premises or immediately upon his being supplied with such liquor enter his own name and the name and address of the visitor in a book which shall be kept for the purpose and which shall show the date of each visit.
  - vi. The Management Committee can apply for up to 12 occasional licences in any 12-month period each having effect for a period of less than 4 days should they wish to hold a function to which the general public are admitted. During the period an occasional licence is in force, the club will be able to admit and sell alcohol to members of the general public and there will be no requirement for guests to be signed in.
42. No excisable liquor or any other drinks will be supplied on credit.

Club

43. Any member is entitled to introduce into the Club friends whom they deem suitable.
44. A list of the names of Club Members and Office bearers shall be managed by the Membership Secretary in line with the current Club Data Privacy Policy.
45. Should a Regatta or other similar competition be arranged with an outside Club or Organisation, members of that Club or Organisation should be admitted to the Club premises on the day or evening of the event.
46. Standing Orders - the Management Committee shall have power to adopt and issue Standing Orders and/or Rules, as they shall from time to time determine. Such Standing Orders and Rules shall come into operation immediately, provided always they shall not be inconsistent with provisions of this constitution.
47. The winding-up of the Club's activities, or the Club as whole, shall be affected only at an Annual General Meeting or at a Special General Meeting to be called for the purpose, provided that the proposal shall be approved only if THREE QUARTERS or more of the voting members present at the meeting vote in favour. If, upon the winding up or dissolution of the Club there remains after the satisfaction of all the Club's debts and liabilities any property whatsoever, the same shall be given or transferred to some other organisation or organisations having objects (that is, aims and activities) similar to the objects of the Club, such organisation or organisations to be determined by the members of the Club by Resolution passed at a General Meeting at or before the time of the dissolution, and in so far as effect cannot be given to such provision then to some charitable objects.
48. This Constitution and Rules may only be altered or added to if the alteration or addition has, after due notice has been given to all Members, been approved by a TWO THIRDS majority of those present at an Annual General Meeting or at a Special General Meeting called for the purpose.
49. Every Member, upon joining the Club and thereafter, is deemed to have notice of, and undertakes to comply with, the Club Rules and any Bye-laws and Regulations of the Club including all Compound Terms & Conditions.
50. In pursuance of the authority vested in the Trustees by the Members of the Club, the Trustees shall be indemnified by the Members of the Club out of the assets of the Club from and against any liability, costs, expenses or payments whatsoever which may be properly incurred or made by them or any one of them in the exercise of their duties or relation to any property of the Club vested in them, or in relation to any legal proceedings, or which otherwise relate directly or indirectly to the performance of the functions of a Trustee of the Club. Should the assets of the Club be insufficient to satisfy such liability, costs, expenses or payments the Trustees shall be entitled to a personal indemnity from the individual Members of the Club. The limit of any individual Member's indemnity in this respect shall be a sum equal to one year's subscription at the then current rate of that category of Membership unless the Trustees have been authorised to exceed such limit by a General Meeting of the Club.
51. The Members acknowledge that these Rules constitute a legally binding contract to regulate the relationship of the Members with each other and the Club.
